

The Prince George Native Friendship Centre (PGNFC) has grown and continues to be one of the largest and busiest community service delivery agencies in Prince George. Our clientele of Aboriginal and non-Aboriginal peoples have supported the Centre's program offerings for the last 49 years. The PGNFC provides culturally appropriate programming to meet the community's unique and diverse needs. We offer a wide variety of services, which includes educational, employment, health, and social programs.

Prince George Native Friendship Centre

"We are a dynamic and compassionate team facilitating individual, family, and community growth, well-being and mutual understanding through the "power of friendship".

Come join our dynamic, team as a:

Intake Clinician / Clinical Supervisor Part-Time (21 hours per week) Aboriginal Child & Youth Wellness Program

*You are passionate about supporting children, youth and their families.
You are interested in blending cultural and clinical ways of working.*

You will provide clinical supervision to a multi-disciplinary team of counsellors and provide clinical support to the program coordinator. Also, represent the program and the PGNFC in the community, and maintain linkages with other PGNFC programs, mental health and community programs. You will provide intake, screening, assessment, crisis intervention and waitlist services. Our team provides holistic services to, primarily, Aboriginal children, youth and their families.

The successful candidate will have:

- Masters in Social Work, Counselling, Clinical Psychology or Child and Youth Care; or comparable graduate degree at the Master's level or equivalent.
- Experience working in mental health services, and crisis intervention; with an in-depth knowledge of social services in Prince George.
- Training / Experience working as a clinical supervisor.
- Experience working in mental health services, crisis intervention, and group facilitation.
- Familiarity with trauma informed practice. Familiarity with Aboriginal teachings and practices.
- Ability to work independently or as a team member.
- Ability to build relationships with the professional community and have oral, written communication skills and computer literacy.
- Successfully complete Criminal Record Clearances.

To apply for this position please submit a resume, cover letter by January 19, 2019 to:

Prince George Native Friendship Center
1600 Third Ave., Prince George BC
Email: employment@pgnfc.com

For a complete job description outlining the duties and responsibilities please visit our website at www.pgnfc.com

"Power of Friendship"